THE BLACK AND WHITE SPIDER AWARDS

Celebrating its 7th year, Black and White Spider Awards is the leading international award honoring black and white photography. This celebrated event shines a spotlight on the best professional and amateur photographers in a prestigious annual competition and globally webcast event, reaching photo fans in 154 countries. With a collective Judging Panel of the world's most recognized experts from TATE, NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC, FRATELLI ALINARI, THE ART NEWSPAPER, BONHAMS of London and more, the Spider Awards is the industry's most authoritative and important photographic event for black and white and mono art. Nominees vie for 132 title awards representing the best work of the year. Receiving a Black and White Spider Award is an endorsement of distinction from the most trusted names in the business.

Photography fans logged on live from 72 countries to see the climax of the 7th Annual Black & White Spider Awards Photoshow Saturday, June 9th, 2012. Among the first attendees on the virtual red carpet was Dianne Yudelso of USA. Opening ceremony enthusiasm turned into a night to remember for Dianne Yudelso who went on to win the Merit of Excellence in "Photographer of the Year". "I am very proud to represent the USA in the 7th Annual Black and White Spider Awards", says Dianne. From that point forward it was a whirlwind of inspiring work, cheerful quotes and Honorees giving thanks to their respective spouses, partners, family and colleagues. The year's top honor of "Photograph of the Year" went to Sandra Stimac of Croatia in the professional category for "Scream", a haunting Wildlife image and Nikolaos Lotsos of Greece in the Amateur category for "The Hunt".
